OMNIBUS ORDER

THIS CAUSE comes before the Court upon Stelor Production, LLC's Motion for Order Confirming Stelor may Proceed with Depositions it Previously Agreed to Schedule for October 9-11 to Accommodate the Schedule of Mr. Silvers [DE 132], and Stelor's Request for an Expedited Status Conference [DE 133] both filed on October 3, 2006. Evidentially the Parties had agreed to take a number of depositions between October 9 and 11, after the deadline already set by this Court. Then Google asked this Court for an extension of time [DE 126], which this Court denied [DE 127], requiring the Parties to complete the depositions by October 5, 2006. Now, Stelor has returned and explained that since that Order denying the extension of time, Mr. Silvers has refused to participate in a deposition. Additionally, this Court has already denied Mr. Silvers' Motion for Protective Order. The court having reviewed the Motions and otherwise being advised in the premises it is hereby,

ORDERED and ADJUDGED that Stelor Production, LLC's Motion for Order Confirming Stelor may Proceed with Depositions it Previously Agreed to Schedule for October 9-11 to Accommodate the Schedule of Mr. Silvers [DE 132] is hereby GRANTED. Stelor's

Re Silvers v. Google, Case 05-80387-CIV-RYSKAMP/VTUNAC (S.D. Fla.)
Stelor Productions, LLC v. Steven Silvers, et al, Case # 272024-V

Dear Mr. Sturgeon and Mr. Kaplan,

As you know, I represent Lindsey Miller, but have not received anything from either of you in response to my emails of Friday Oct. 6 regarding the subpoena putatively served on her. First, Lindsey Miller objects to the attempted service of the subpoena, requiring her to appear at a date past the deadline set by the federal Court in Florida. Second, pursuant to FRCP 45(c)(2)(A), Mr. Miller objects to both the timeliness and scope of the requested document production, including requests that are overly burdensome, and irrelevant to the Florida suit, such as all communications between Ms. Miller and her employer and others. Third, pursuant to FRCP 45(c)(3)(A), Ms. Miller objects to the request to appear for a deposition as failing to allow reasonable time for compliance. I have not had adequate time to consult with Ms. Miller, or to learn what the Florida suit is about generally or in relation to her. Accordingly, I will advise Ms. Miller not to appear tomorrow, on October 10, 2006 at 3 PM at Mr. Sturgeon's offices. We intend to file a motion to quash if I do not hear from you by 12:00 on Oct. 10 that the subpoena is being withdrawn, and will seek fees as applicable.

I also represent Elon Eisenberg. I understand service of a subpoena was attempted yesterday, Sunday October 8, 2006, but failed. Because there was no actual service, and for similar objections that would or might apply to Mr. Eisenberg if he is served, he will not be appearing for any deposition this week. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Michael C. Worsham
